Christ In You, The Hope of Glory

Recently, we hosted a youth weekend for our youth as well as youth from other areas of the country. We gathered at the church for fellowship, activities, food, and time around the word of God. Our theme for the weekend was "Hope" and being as it is fresh in my mind I thought I would share with you some of what we learned. Hope is a word that we use quite frequently in our daily speaking. We use it mostly to convey what we are wishing for in the sense of, "I hope I get a good report on my test or I hope I get a raise at work", it carries a sense of a wishful thought with a reasonable expectation that it will come to pass or perhaps no real expectation at all.

Hope as it is used in the scriptures carries a different meaning: it speaks of a confident expectation. Hope is an essential characteristic of the Christian life as we will see as we examine some of its uses in the scriptures. Hebrews 6:17-20 "Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath: 18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us: 19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil; 20 Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec." Our hope serves as an anchor for our soul which means that it extends beyond this life into the eternal. Jesus has entered into heaven itself to appear in the presence of God for us: In Christ we have access to the gracious Father. Our hope is secure in Christ who went the way of the cross in order to anchor our hope securely behind the veil into heaven itself.

We now are living in hope because what we are cannot be fully seen. We live between the times meaning that we live between the time of the resurrection of Christ and the time of His Second Coming. We are members of an eschatological community (living in the end times) determined by the reality of a future that has already begun, but are still waiting its consummation or completion. 1 Peter 1:3-5 "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, 5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time." Not only are we living in hope, the confident expectation of His Coming, but our hope itself is living because of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. We have been brought into newness of life by the finished work of Christ. Christ himself has brought us into new birth and thus into a living hope by which we now live.

The hope we live in does not put us to shame. The reality of Christian hope is based on two things: God's victory over evil in the death and resurrection of Christ and the gift of the Holy Spirit. Romans 5:1-5 "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: 2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. 3 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; 4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope: 5 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us." It is the Holy Spirit indwelling us that reminds us of the love of God. The hope that we have is not based on human effort or imaginations. It is based on the love of God as shown through the work of Christ. Romans 5:8 "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

The object of Christian hope is the coming manifestation of Christ. What is now the ground of our hope will in that day be fully revealed. Hope insists that the Christian wait with eager longing for the great day when all of God's promises are fully realized. Romans 8:24-25 "For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? 25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it." Hope is an encouragement to believers in the midst of sufferings, but it also prevents believers from being content with their current circumstances. We always are mindful of the work of Christ on our behalf and the eternity that dwells within us now. Truly it is Christ in you, the hope of glory that makes our hope what it is. We are confident that this New Year will be good because of the hope we have in Christ. He is our hope, the anchor of our soul, our living hope, our hope that does not put us to shame, and our hope for the future. It is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Amen

Happy New Year and God's Peace, Pastor Dennis Hannu

Funeral

Elias Samuel Aho, age 73, a lifelong Menahga/Wolf Lake, MN area resident, entered eternal life in the early morning hours of Friday, January 15, 2016 at the Essentia Health Medical Center in Fargo, ND surrounded by his loved ones following a valiant battle against a very aggressive form of cancer.

Elias was born on November 18, 1942 to Hugo Elias and Elsie (Kumma) Aho on his parent's farm in Wolf Lake Township of Becker County, MN. He attended the District #721 Country School through the eighth grade and then went on to attend high school in Menahga where he graduated with the Class of 1960. Elias then entered the United States Army where he proudly served his country based at Ft. Ord, CA until his honorable discharge. On May 24, 1963, Elias was married to Hazel Lorraine Koskela at the Spruce Grove Apostolic Lutheran Church near Wolf Lake. They were blessed with five children: Catherine, Robert, Daniel, Anthony and Pamela. As a young man, Elias farmed with his dad and uncles. In the mid-1960's, Elias began working in the pork industry managing the merchandising of feeder pigs for the Wisconsin Feeder Pig Co-op. His eye for identifying quality and discerning disease made him a very successful buyer for his company. He looked forward to taking his children with him in the truck on his buying trips. In the early 90's Elias retired early due to health issues; however, he continued to keep busy doing maintenance for his brothers' dairy farm. He was gifted at building or repairing almost anything. For many years the sight of Elias driving his old jeep, which he converted into a mobile repair shop, could be seen heading out to work at the farm. His great-nephews referred to the old jeep as "Eli's Hummer". Over the years, Elias built a number of saunas for family members. He was a tremendous cook who was well known for his perfect gravy, barbequed ribs and fried fish. He had a green thumb and enjoyed nurturing his garden into fruitful abundance to share with family and friends. He loved his grandchildren and was their biggest fan. This was evident as he spoke proudly of them often in conversation. Dad was happiest when his home was full with his children and grandchildren. He enjoyed his little pals, Brayden and Hayley, who adopted him as their "Papa G". Elias was a man who took his faith seriously. He was a long time member of the Spruce Grove Apostolic Lutheran Church. He loved the Lord and prayed faithfully that his loved ones would all enjoy eternity with him in Heaven.

He will be lovingly remembered by his dearly loved wife for nearly 53 years, Hazel of Menahga, MN; two daughters: Catie (Karl) Sagedahl of East Bethel, MN and Pamela (Todd) Aho of Blaine, MN; his son, Dan (Lori) Aho of Harris, MN; 2 daughter-in-laws: Rhonda Aho of Laughlin, NV and Mary Aho of North Branch, MN; 12 grandchildren: Tarah (Derek), Lindsay, Trent, Amber (Kyle) Sammy, Brie, Megan (Henry), Jenna, Thomas, Kelsey, Ryan and Erica; six sisters: Eva (Larry) Salo, Elvi (Walter) Ketola, Alice (Marc) Ruotsala, Gladys (Jesse) Fraki, Martha Aho and Esther (Paul) Impola, five brothers: Raymond (Janet) Aho, Reino (Peggy) Aho, Joshua (Deborah) Aho, Harry (Lori) Aho and Harvey (Patricia) Aho; one sister-in-law, Nola Aho; four brothers-in-law: LeRoy (Joan) Koskela, Clifford (Irene) Koskela, Eugene (Gerri) Koskela and Gerald (Debbie) Koskela; as well as many nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.

Elias was preceded in death by his parents; numerous aunts and uncles, a brother, Reuben; two sons: Robert in 2012 and Tony in 2014 as well as several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, January 23, 2016 at Spruce Grove Apostolic Lutheran Church near Wolf Lake with Reverend Dennis Hannu officiating.
