At the Turning of the Tide?

Action in Exile

Author: Justin Lonas

Article Editor's Note: This is an uncharacteristically action-oriented piece for Disciple, but if there was ever a time to act on abortion, it is now.

"You may choose to look the other way, but you can never say again that you did not know"—William Wilberforce.

Citizen journalist David Daleiden and his Center for Medical Progress started lobbing weekly grenades into the lap of America's "safe, legal, and rare" abortion culture in early July. The effects of exposing the ghastly nature of Planned Parenthood's business have been bracing; footage of PPFA's insouciant staff tossing out price quotes and lists of body parts over lunch is as damning as the direct images of dismembered children.

I've lived my entire life under laws that permit these crimes against heaven, shaking my head at cowardice and prevarication from "pro-life" politicians, discouraged into complacent resignation. This is the way things are in Babylon.

In many ways, God is glorified and the Church is served through marginalization and suffering. Growing accustomed to being down and out in regards to the wider culture seemed (and in many ways still does) a sensible course. We know God is on our side, but we expect to appear as "aliens and strangers" to our fellows.

The exile we've been preparing for has been centered on the prospect of diminishing religious freedom, particularly in regards to holding a biblical view of marriage. After the Obergefell v. Hodges ruling, the wagons were circling and no one was expecting the resurgent roar of the pro-life cause.

The Lord's plan for exiles is not only humbling and purification, though. He also uses them to speak truth to the hearts of kings (i.e., Daniel with Nebuchadnezzar and later Darius), to secure religious freedom (see Ezra), prevent deadly and unjust persecution (Esther), and to lead the remnant to full obedience (Nehemiah). In all of these cases, the people involved were called simply to obedience—the action was brought about by God.

Whenever God moves, among the surest signs it is His own doing is that the faithful are as surprised by Him (though joyfully so) as His enemies. The Lord is on His throne as ever, and He delights in such reversals that protect the innocent, reveal the guilty, and bring Him glory.

All this is in His perfect timing, for these issues are not at all unrelated. The degeneration of marriage and the devaluing of children go hand in hand; at the end of this cultural project, we have been forced to reconsider the beginning. The sexual relationship God ordained in marriage to join man and wife as one flesh often, in due course, literally produces one flesh anew through the bearing of children. Fruitfulness is part of the created design for marriage. When we hate the children we create, it is only natural for this chosen fruitlessness to progress to a state of inherent fruitlessness.

Daleiden's perseverant courage has reminded me of the boldness and persistence a righteous cause should call forth in us. Seeing in cold light the evil of this selfish practice brings me to mourn again for the bloodguilt of my people in celebrating it. Having walked through three pregnancies together, my wife and I appreciate the gravity of abortion in ways we couldn't when we were younger. To see the familiar features of little children brutally snatched from the womb and cut to pieces sparks a fire to fight for their lives.

For many of us, being "pro-life" has been a part of our identity, but this is the shot in the arm we needed to press the battle to its end. For those who have silently nurtured doubts about the morality of abortion, these videos are confirming their worst suspicions. God's creation speaks His truth; these are not "clumps of cells" but image bearers of the Most High. There are no reasonable doubts. We are called to care for orphans and widows, and who is more fatherless than a child scheduled for dilation and extraction?

For those who have supported abortion in carefree ignorance, there can be no more simple excuses. To defend Planned Parenthood has always been to celebrate horrendous sin, but no euphemisms remain to hide behind. Sin, as always, has overreached. The complacency and triumphalism of these profiteers of murder gives the lie to every sly evasion. Lives are being ended, and those doing the killing know it full well.

A wave is cresting. This can be a "Selma moment" in the march to secure right to life for the unborn. The cameras are rolling and the world cannot unsee what it is seeing; to oppose the movement now is to stand with the entrenched power of visceral evil. I don't want to live in a place that lets this continue anymore.

The time to press hard is here, and pursuit to the end leaves us no room to "go wobbly" on the hill we are charging. We don't fight a vague, sinister force but a corporate conglomerate, an "Abortion, Inc." Moral questions are being plainly directed at Planned Parenthood, which controls 40% of the national market in this death-dealing. Removing the half of their funding that comes on the backs of taxpayers is a no-brainer. If this round is lost because of lackluster zeal, the shame is ours.

The goal, of course, is the end of abortion for good. Opposition will not always be so easy as it is now, with walls divinely crumbling before us. What we hope is that the demise of Planned Parenthood sparks opportunities to change hearts across the board.

Perhaps, the Lord has allowed the cultural position of the Church to be weakened for such a time as this. These undefended children can no longer be seen as pawns in a political game. The power play is coming from those who would wield the state against the innocent, not the other way around. Over time, as more see this as a moral issue rather than a partisan ax to grind, abortion will fade from the political scene. But this will only increase the need for the Church to love and care for the victims of crimes, poor choices, and sinful deception. To take abortion off the table will bring children from difficult situations, and opportunities to nurture them and their parents alike.

Obstruction and misdirection continue. Satan does not relinquish strongholds but by the power of God, and he is ferocious in a corner. Let us not grow weary in this good aim or be distracted by the smokescreens of the enemy.

We are all sinners, but that does not justify the taking of innocent life to hide sin's consequences.

Those who have and perform abortions need the Gospel, but that begins with repentance from sin.

Abortion is a consequence of other sins, both individual and institutional, but we must stop punishing the victims in order to show real mercy to the guilty.

Stop. Killing. Babies. Then we can talk about all the rest.

Justin Lonas is editor of Disciple Magazine for AMG International in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

In light of the upcoming Pregnancy Resource Center Banquet in Park Rapids at which we host a table I thought this was a great article. Let us continue to not only stand against abortion but also to support those who are the victims of crime and poor choices by bringing them the gospel as we care for their needs.

Matthew 11:28-30 Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

God's Peace, Pastor Dennis Hannu

Funeral

Camri Bella Aho, age 14 months, the beautiful precious daughter of Max and Ashley Aho died tragically at her home near Menahga on Saturday, August 8, 2015.

Camri blessed the lives of her parents since her birth on May 28, 2014. Even though her time on this earth was short, the lives of everyone who knew her were touched by her beautiful smile, her sparkling eyes and her spunk and enthusiasm. She loved playing with her dolls and waking up her older brother, Crio each morning. She loved babies and shared in her family's anticipation awaiting the birth of her new baby sibling this September. She was a daddy's girl, who would always run to her daddy as soon as he walked in the door after a long day at work. Her beautiful brown eyes mirrored a heart full of joy in being a much loved and important part of her family. Her mom and dad are greatly comforted in the knowledge of their faith that this precious girl who God entrusted to them is now safely in the loving arms of Jesus and she is surrounded by other loved ones who have gone to heaven before her.

Camri will be deeply missed until her family's circle of love is fully restored in Heaven by her parents: Max and Ashley Aho and her brother, Crio all of Menahga; her maternal grandparents: Fiore and Heather Marrelli; great grandparents: Kenneth and SueAnn Brzak and Maria Marelli as well as her great great grandmother, Ermina Guerico age 101, all of Alberta, Canada; her paternal grandparents: Victor and Lola Aho of Menahga; her great grandmother, Elma Impola also of Menahga; as well as 25 aunts and uncles and many many cousins.

Camri was preceded in death by her aunt, Emelia Howard; her cousin, Graham Aho; as well as other baby cousins who she will now play with in Heaven; her maternal grandfather, Gennaro Marrelli and her paternal great grandparents: Albert Impola and Urho and Emelia Aho.

Funeral services were held on Sunday, August 16, 2015 at the Spruce Grove Apostolic Lutheran Church near Wolf Lake with the Reverend Dennis Hannu officiating. Camri's casket bearers were her first cousins: Canton Matson, Damon Howard, Victor Aho III, Silas Olson and Boaz Siltala. Interment was in the Aho family plot located in the Balmi Cemetery.

Funeral

George Kenneth Salmonson, age 84, went to be home with the Lord on Tuesday, September 8, 2015 at Green Pine Acres Nursing Home in Menahga, MN with loved ones at his side.

George was born September 28, 1930 to Olaf and Ida (Yliniemi) Salmonson in Toad Lake Township of Becker County. It was in this same area that he attended country school. As a young man, George worked in the iron ore mines near Keewatin, MN. In 1953 he entered the United States Army. He was a corporal in Company B of the 115th Engineering Battalion at Fort Leonardwood, MO. George was sent to Atlanta, GA where he was taught specialized welding procedures. He received an honorable discharge in 1954 and went to work in Milwaukee, WI. It was there that he met Mary Ann Schwan. They were united in marriage September 4, 1955 in Marion, WI. This union was blessed with three daughters: Deborah, Rebecca and Patricia. While he lived in Milwaukee, he worked as a skilled welder for Huebsch Manufacturing Company and Ladish Company in Cudahy. In 1964, George and Mary Ann purchased the family farm in Toad Lake Township enjoying life on their dairy farm for 37 years. Eventually George and MaryAnn owned an entire herd of red and white Holsteins. Besides farming, he worked the ice harvest in Detroit Lakes, the shaving plant in Osage, drove milk truck, hauling milk cans for the creamery of Frazee, and delivered fuel for Seaberg Oil of Detroit Lakes. He also operated his own crawler, backhoe, and dump truck: digging waterlines, basements, sewers; hauling snow and gravel. In 2001, the dairy cattle were sold and George continued haymaking, rented out his pasture land and did welding repairs for neighbors. In 2007, George and Mary Ann sold the farm and moved into a newly built home they purchased in Menahga. In 2012, George was diagnosed with Alzheimer's soon after MaryAnn's diagnosis of cancer, and with their ongoing medical needs they moved to Heritage Cottages in Park Rapids where he resided for one year, followed by a few months at Diamond Willow (Park Rapids) and Foley Care Center. In January of 2015, George was diagnosed with a fast growing cancer and in February returned to Menahga to reside at Green Pine Acres Nursing Home. He was a member of the Spruce Grove Apostolic Lutheran Church near Wolf Lake, MN. George will be remembered for his devotion to his wife, daughters, grandchildren and great grandchildren as well as his legacy of integrity and his willingness and skills to help others.

He will be lovingly remembered by his three daughters: Deborah (Joshua) Aho of Wolf Lake. Rebecca (Terrance) Seaberg of Detroit Lakes, and Patricia (Harvey) Aho of Wolf Lake; 19 grandchildren; 44 great grandchildren; one brother, Marvin (Martha) Salmonson of New Ipswich, NH; one sister, Fay Vaisvila of Buffalo Grove, IL; one sister in law, Marcella Salmonson of Mpls, MN; the Schwan family, as well as numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and neighbors. He was preceded in death by his wife his parents, MaryAnn's parents, one brother, Harold; two brother in laws, James Krueger, Andrew Vaisvila, and one stillborn grandson, Tyrel Aho (Harvey and Patricia's son).

Funeral service was held on Saturday, September 12, 2015 at Spruce Grove Apostolic Lutheran Church near Wolf Lake with Pastor Dennis Hannu and Pastor Elmer Yliniemi officiating.

The Annual Meeting Minutes and any changes made to the dinner, coffee and cleaning groups will be distributed to church members on September 27th and will be on the church website after the 30th.
